

Personal Achievement

Achievements So Far

1. What is your biggest achievement so far?
2. What was your most recent one, and how did you make it happen?
3. Who did you tell when it happened?
4. Do you celebrate your wins, or do you move straight on to the next thing?
5. Do you post your achievements anywhere, or keep them to yourself?
6. Are you proud of something nobody else knows about?

What Made It Happen

1. How much of success is hard work, and how much is being in the right place at the right time?
2. Who helped you get where you are today?
3. What is something you worked hard for and still did not get?
4. Have you ever gotten lucky with something you did not work for?
5. Which habit has helped you the most?
6. Do you work better with a deadline, or when nobody is watching?

Goals That Work

1. What is one goal you have right now?
2. Can you say it in one clear sentence?
3. How would you know you actually did it? What would you count?

4. Is it doable with your real schedule, or is it a wish?
5. Why does this goal matter to you?
6. When do you want it done, exactly?

Failing and Trying Again

1. Have you ever failed to reach a goal? What happened?
2. What did that failure teach you?
3. When a plan is not working, do you change the plan or drop the goal?
4. Do you quit early or push through? Give an example.
5. What would you say to a friend who just failed at something?
6. Is one failure enough to stop trying?

What Achievement Means

1. In your own words, what is achievement?
2. What does your family or culture expect you to achieve by thirty?
3. Is success mostly about money, or something else?
4. Which common life goals do you actually want: a house, marriage, a steady job, or something else?
5. Do you compare your achievements with your friends'? How does that feel?
6. Is it better to enjoy the process or to hit the goal?
7. What do you want to be able to say you have done in ten years?
8. What would you try if you knew you could not fail?
