

Travel Hacks

Scenery and Experiences

impressive
very good and worth noticing.

breathtaking
so beautiful that it surprises you.

scenic
having beautiful natural views.

stunning
extremely beautiful or impressive.

memorable
special and easy to remember.

peaceful
quiet and calm.

Places and Culture

exotic
unusual and interesting because it comes from another place.

authentic
real and traditional, not made for tourists.

cultural
connected with the life, art, and traditions of a place.

unique
different from anything else.

historic
important because of its history.

local
connected with the people and businesses of a particular area.

Travel Conditions

convenient
easy and useful for a particular situation.

remote
far from cities and other busy places.

flexible
easy to change when plans change.

crowded
full of people.

touristy
popular with tourists and designed for tourists.

affordable
not too expensive.

Before Traveling

What should we check before traveling: the weather, passport expiration date, or luggage weight?

Do you travel light or overpack? What do you usually pack too much of?

Air Travel

How can we make sure we arrive at the airport on time?

What do you usually do during a flight, and what do you need to feel comfortable?

Public Transport

How can travelers learn to use local public transport in a new city?

What should travelers be careful about on buses, trains, or subways?

Sightseeing

Do you prefer a flexible trip or a detailed itinerary? Why?

Do you leave space for unexpected changes, or do you plan every hour?

What makes a travel photo worth sharing, and when should people put their phones away?

How can travelers avoid tourist traps and find places beyond the usual tourist spots?

Food and Restaurants

How can travelers find good local restaurants instead of tourist restaurants?

What food or restaurant problems should travelers avoid? Have you experienced one?

Hotels

What free services can guests ask a hotel for, such as extra water, a map, or late checkout?

What was your worst hotel experience, and what would you do differently next time?