Discussion

What do you usually pack first when you prepare for a trip, and why?

Which travel app do you use most — maps, booking, or translation? What for?

What is the most important thing to research before visiting a new country?

If you only had 48 hours in a new city, how would you spend them?

What is one thing you would recommend when someone wants to visit China for the first time?

How would you split travel costs fairly with a group of friends?

What would you do if your travel companion wanted to change the plan at the last minute?

Try to compare traveling in peak season with traveling in the off-season. Which do you prefer?
