

Discussion on Education

Personal Learning Habits

Do you enjoy learning new things? Give a recent example.

Are you studying anything these days? How many hours a week do you spend on it?

Do you go to the library? What kind of study environment do you prefer?

Do you listen to music while you study? What kind of music helps you focus?

Do you prefer group study or studying alone? Which one suits you better?

What is your learning style? Do you learn best by listening, reading, or doing?

For how many hours can you study before you get tired or lose focus?

Have you earned any certificates or awards through studying that you are proud of?

What gives you the motivation to study new things?

Does studying ever exhaust you? Can it be as tiring as physical labor?

School Days and Reflection

What were your favorite and least favorite subjects in school? Why?

Do you remember a typical day as a high school student? Do you feel nostalgic about it?

Did you learn any life skills at school, such as cooking or managing money?

Is there anything you studied at school that you now think was a waste of time?

What do you think schools should teach but currently do not?

If you could go back in time, what would you do differently in your school life?

Ways of Learning and Teachers

Who has taught you a lot in your life?

Have you ever considered becoming a teacher? Why or why not?

What have you learned on your own, without a teacher or formal education?

How do you feel about studying online? Is it better than learning in a classroom?

Which way do you prefer to learn: a course, a private tutor, or online videos?

Would you like to study overseas? Where would you go, and what would you study?

How important is good parenting when it comes to education?

Is a teacher necessary for learning? Why or why not?

Exams and the Education System

How do you feel about tests and exams? Are they necessary?

Are standardized tests a fair way to measure a student's knowledge?

Do you think good test scores lead to a successful career?

Which schools in China are considered the best, and why?

Many high schools in China now have a "two days off" policy. What do you think?

Do we have a good education system in China? What are its strengths and weaknesses?

Education, Society and the Future

What does education mean to you?

What are the three most important subjects to study, and why?

How many years do you have to study something before you become an expert?

What are the elderly and the young learning now?

How important is education for an individual, a society and a country?

Do you prefer to spend time with people of a similar education level to yourself?

What kinds of things will be important to learn in the next ten years?

How can technology, such as AI, improve the way students learn in the future?