

Art Discussion

Film Genres

action — exciting, fast-paced.

comedy — funny, entertaining.

drama — serious, emotional.

romance — romantic, touching.

horror — scary, frightening.

thriller — suspenseful, tense.

sci-fi — creative, futuristic.

fantasy — magical, creative.

animation — colorful, imaginative.

documentary — informative, realistic.

mystery — mysterious, surprising.

musical — lively, entertaining.

Music Genres

pop — catchy, popular.

rock — powerful, energetic.

hip-hop / rap — rhythmic, expressive.

R&B — smooth, emotional.

jazz — creative, relaxing.

classical music — beautiful, calming.

folk music — traditional, simple.

electronic music — modern, energetic.

country music — relaxed, emotional.

heavy metal — loud, intense.

Painting Vocabulary

portrait — realistic, expressive.

landscape — peaceful, beautiful.

still life — detailed, colorful.

abstract art — unusual, creative.

oil painting — rich, vivid.

watercolor — light, delicate.

sketch — simple, rough.

realistic painting — lifelike, detailed.

colorful painting — bright, vivid.

black-and-white painting — dramatic, minimal.

brushstroke — bold, visible.

composition — balanced, interesting.

Discussion Questions

What picture is on your phone wallpaper? What does it remind you of?

What film scene made you laugh, cry, or think deeply? What happened in the scene?

Have you ever bought something because you liked its design, such as a poster, phone case, notebook, or piece of clothing? What attracted you?

What kind of art do you enjoy—music, films, paintings, dance, or something else? Why?

Do you have art, photos, or posters at home? Where did you get them?

Why do some people buy paintings or other art for millions of yuan? Is a high price a sign of high quality?

Can a popular film be bad? Can an unpopular film be good? Give an example.

Which themes appear again and again in art, such as love, family, loneliness, or freedom? Why do artists return to them?

Do children create art more freely than adults? Why or why not?

Do you have any hidden gems to share?

In a fire, would you save a cat or the Mona Lisa? Why?

Can we live without art?