Business Discussion Questions

Jobs & Career

1. What matters most in a job — money, enjoying your work, or what else?
2. How do we find a good job? Apps, referrals, job fairs, or any other way?
3. What helps people get a good job — a degree, real skills, or connections?
4. How do people get a promotion — hard work, good relationships, or luck?
5. What do you check first on a job ad — the salary, the city, or the hours?
6. Is it OK to quit a job after only three months if you dislike it?
7. What is a fair starting salary for a fresh graduate in your city?

Company & Workplace

1. What company do you want to work for — a big one, a start-up, or another?
2. What makes a meeting useful — a clear goal, a short time, or the right people?
3. What helps a company react fast — small teams, good leaders, or what else?
4. What makes a boss easy to work with? Give a real example from your life.
5. Is it OK to send a work message at 11 p.m. on a Sunday? Why or why not?
6. What does a company need to do to keep good people from leaving?
7. Would you rather work in a quiet office or a noisy open-plan floor? Why?

Work-Life Balance

1. How can people balance work and family — flexible hours, or what else?
2. What is the best way to show you work hard — long hours or good ideas?
3. How do you deal with work messages after work — reply, wait, or ignore?
4. How many hours a week is too much? What would you do about it?
5. Do you check your work phone on holiday? What does that say about your job?

6. If your company pays for overtime, would you work every weekend?
7. What does a real weekend look like for you — rest, family, or chores?

Technology & the Future of Work

1. What will work look like — home offices, big offices, or something else?
2. How will AI change work — help us, take our jobs, or both?
3. Would you take a job where a robot or AI checks your daily work? Why?
4. What new job do you think will exist in 2035 but not today?
5. Is it rude to use AI to write an email to a colleague or a client?
6. How do you keep your skills useful when everything changes so fast?

Sales & Customers

1. How should companies sell — on WeChat, on live-streaming, or in shops?
2. Who is a salesperson — the sales team, customer service, or everyone?
3. What do good salespeople need — product knowledge, a friendly manner, or more?
4. Have you ever talked a seller down on price? How did you do it?
5. Would you pay 20% more for a product with a two-year warranty? Why?
6. What makes you leave a shop or app without buying anything?
7. Do you trust customer reviews more than a shop's own ads? Why?

Business Ethics & Fairness

1. What should customers do about cheating companies — complain or stop buying?
2. When is it OK for a company to pay less tax — never, or in hard times?
3. How is work different for men and women — pay, promotions, or job types?
4. Is it wrong to accept a gift from a client who wants a contract?
5. Should a company tell staff before it plans to close a factory? Why?
6. What should happen to a manager who takes money from the team?