Workplace Discrimination

Vocabulary

race

sex

marital status

pregnancy

sexual orientation

religion

hometown

disability

age

citizenship

minority

majority

diversity

diverse

stereotypes

prejudice

the glass ceiling

Conversation Questions

What laws against workplace discrimination exist in your country?

In the US, an employer cannot ask about religion, date of birth, nationality, marital status, or disability. Do similar rules exist here? Do they protect job seekers?

What policies does your company have to fight discrimination and build a diverse workforce?

Is workplace discrimination getting better or worse? Are some types improving while others get worse?

How can we reduce workplace discrimination? Should the push come from government, companies, or consumers?

Have you ever seen or experienced discrimination at work? What happened?

Is it harder to find a job at a certain age in your field? How so?

Do height or appearance requirements in job ads bother you? Are they fair?

What would you do if a colleague made a joke about someone's hometown?

What one rule would you add to make hiring fairer?