Photography

Types of Photos

1. What kind of photos do you take most — people, streets, food, or nature?
2. Do you prefer taking photos of people or of objects and places? Why?
3. Have you ever tried street photography, catching strangers in a moment?
4. Whose photos do you like online — portraits, landscapes, or food?
5. Have you ever tried wildlife or macro photography? What was it like?
6. Is a portrait of a person harder to take than a photo of a view?
7. What is a type of photography you have never tried but want to?

Techniques and Gear

1. Do you shoot on a phone or a camera? Which do you reach for and why?
2. How do you choose what to photograph when you are on a trip?
3. Do you know the rules of composition, like the rule of thirds?
4. How important is good light to a photo? When do you like to shoot?
5. Have you ever bought gear you barely used? What was it?
6. What makes a photo look professional to you?
7. Do you take many shots of the same thing, or just one or two?

Editing and Filters

1. Do you edit your photos before you post them? How much is too much?
2. Do filters change the "truth" of a photo? Does that matter to you?
3. Have you ever edited a photo so much it barely looked like you?
4. Do you keep the original file, or delete it after you edit?
5. What makes an edited photo look fake to you?
6. Would you ever pay for a photo app or a filter pack? Why?
7. Do you edit photos for your family, or only for yourself?

Photos and Stories

1. What role does photography play in telling a story?
2. Can you think of a photo that changed how people saw an event?
3. How do photos shape the way we remember a trip or a person?
4. Is it rude to photograph people without asking? Why or why not?
5. Do people your age take too many photos instead of enjoying the moment?
6. How do you feel when a stranger photographs you on the street?
7. Can a single photo change how you feel about a place?

Photos and Culture

1. How does photography show what daily life is like in your city?
2. What do tourists always photograph here, and what do locals never do?
3. How has phone photography changed the way we travel?
4. Do people post photos more for themselves or for the likes?
5. How is a formal photo, like a wedding photo, different from a daily one?
6. What old family photos do you have, and what do they show?
7. How do you think photos will change in the next ten years?

Your Own Photos

1. What inspired you to start taking photos?
2. What is your favorite photo that you have taken? Describe it.
3. Do you print any of your photos, or keep them all on your phone?
4. Do you have a photo that means a lot to your whole family?
5. If you could photograph anywhere in the world, where would you go?
6. What would you like to learn about photography in the next year?
7. Who is the best photographer you know personally?
