Predictions

Weather and Fortune Tellers

1. What do you predict the weather will be like tomorrow? Why?
2. How has the weather forecast changed over the years?
3. Have you ever been to see a fortune teller? What did they say?
4. How did fortune tellers predict the future in the past, and now?
5. Do you believe in horoscopes or anything similar? Why or why not?
6. What would you do if the forecast was always wrong?
7. Do you trust the weather app on your phone? How much?

Everyday Predictions

1. If you could know one thing about your future, what would it be?
2. Would you like to know the age you will live to? Why or why not?
3. Do you ever buy lottery tickets? What are your chances of winning?
4. What is the most unpredictable thing in your life right now?
5. What is something in your daily life that you find too predictable?
6. What is something you will never try to predict? Why not?
7. How do you plan a trip when you don't know the weather?

Money, Sport and Jobs

1. How do people predict the stock market and make money bets?
2. What do you think of the link between prediction and empiricism?
3. Which jobs involve making predictions? How are they made?
4. What information would you want to predict a sports game?
5. Do experts predict the economy better than ordinary people do?

6. Would you trust an AI to predict your future? Why or why not?
7. Have you ever spotted a trend early and turned out to be right?

Big and Bold Predictions

1. How do you feel about doomsday preppers and catastrophe predictions?
2. What is the most positive prediction you have heard or made recently?
3. What is a prediction you wanted to happen but did not? Why not?
4. What do you predict the world will be like in a thousand years? In ten?
5. Can predicting something actually make it happen? Give an example.
6. If the media predicts a trend and it happens, did it cause the trend?
7. Cyberpunk or digital cloud — which future do you expect?

You as a Predictor

1. Who is a very predictable person that you know? What can you expect?
2. How did you predict Beijing would change when you were younger?
3. What is a prediction you made that turned out to be true?
4. What role does intuition play? Do you believe in a sixth sense?
5. Are you predictable? Do the "suggested for you" feeds know you?
6. Are you good at predictions? Give an example.
7. Do you agree that with all the data, a person could predict everything?

Prediction in Daily Life

1. Do you always carry an umbrella just in case? Why?
2. How do you predict how a friend will react to your news?
3. Have you ever predicted a problem and prevented it? How?
4. What is a prediction about your city you hope comes true?
5. What is one prediction you are sure about for next year?